
Performance Day

WHAT TO EXPECT ONCE I GET OFF THE BUS

Once you arrive, you'll be welcomed and ushered into the Peristyle Theatre by our friendly staff. They'll help guide you to your seats. Be sure to stay with your group and follow your teacher or chaperone's directions.

WHAT DO I WEAR

There's no dress code for the performance. Some people like to dress up, while others come in casual clothes. It's totally up to you—just wear something that feels comfortable and appropriate for a special event.

WHEN DO I CLAP

At the start of the concert, there will be a short announcement so you'll know when the performance is about to begin. You're welcome to clap at the beginning of the concert, after each musical piece, and of course, at the end to show your appreciation for the musicians.

ETIQUETTE

During the performance, it's best to hold your applause until the end of each piece unless the conductor or performers signal otherwise. If you hear something you really love and want to share your excitement, you can quietly lean over and whisper to a neighbor, but be sure to keep your voice down so everyone can enjoy the music.

If you need to use the restroom, the best time to leave your seat is during the applause between pieces. This helps keep distractions to a minimum while the orchestra is playing.

WHERE DO I GO AFTER THE CONCERT IS OVER

Once the concert ends, dismissal will be announced from the stage. Schools will be dismissed one at a time, based on where they are seated in the theater. We ask that all groups stay seated and patient during this process. When it's your turn, your group will be guided out of the theater. Outside, our friendly staff will be there to help you find your bus and make sure everyone gets back safely.
