2026-2027 SEASON

Welcome to a season of momentum.

At Live Arts Toledo, live performance is more than entertainment. Through music and dance, we unite people, inspire audiences, and nurture creativity throughout our region.

As home to the Toledo Symphony, Toledo Ballet, Toledo Jazz Orchestra, our music and dance schools, and four youth orchestras, Live Arts Toledo is where everyone has a place as exceptional artistry and lasting moments unfold.

Central to this energy is the Toledo Center for Live Arts, our new home for rehearsal, learning, collaboration, and creation. It reflects a spirit of ascent, where students and professionals, families and patrons, and tradition and innovation rise.

You'll find the 2026-2027 season is full of highlights, including the return of internationally acclaimed violinist Joshua Bell in March 2027, a performance that underscores Toledo's place on the global artistic stage.

Thank you for being part of what we are building.
The stage is set. Let's LIVE it together.

Holiday Pops!

TOWER OF POWER

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10 | 8PM
THE PERISTYLE

Few bands hit with the precision and punch of Tower of Power. Their signature horn lines are sharp, driving, and impossible to ignore, and with the full force of the Toledo Symphony behind them, that sound expands in a way you will not hear anywhere else. This is groove-forward, high-energy music built on rhythm, tight ensemble playing, and a brass section that does not hold back.

HOLIDAY POPS!

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5 | 8PM
THE PERISTYLE

Celebrate the season with Holiday Pops! The Toledo Symphony fills the Peristyle with festive cheer, performing holiday classics, beloved carols, and symphonic favorites. Sing along, enjoy heartwarming music, and experience the magic of the holidays with family and friends. Secret Agent Soundtracks

SECRET AGENT SOUNDTRACKS

SATURDAY, JANUARY 30 | 8PM
THE PERISTYLE

Sleek, stylish, and built on tension, the sound of the spy genre lives in its music. From iconic themes to pulse-raising action cues, this program leans into the atmosphere that defines these stories, cool confidence, sudden danger, and the sense that something is always just around the corner. Hearing it live, the details sharpen and the edge becomes unmistakable.

PHANTOM'S FAVORITE DIVAS

SATURDAY, MARCH 13 | 8PM
THE PERISTYLE

Three former Broadway Christines take the stage for a program that moves beyond a single role. Drawing on years of performing THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA around the world, they bring vocal precision, blend, and presence to a mix of musical theater favorites, classic songs, and their own arrangements. The program balances humor, warmth, and full-voice intensity, with a return to the music that first brought them together and a fresh take on the Phantom legacy.

Cody Fry

CODY FRY

SATURDAY, APRIL 24 | 8PM
THE PERISTYLE

Cody Fry's music blends pop songwriting with a cinematic sense of scale, where intimate ideas grow into something expansive and richly orchestrated. Hearing it live with a full symphony brings those layers into focus. The rhythm section, the strings, and the brass all work together to shape a sound that moves easily between subtle and soaring.

The Music of Queen

THE MUSIC OF QUEEN

SATURDAY, JUNE 5 | 8PM
THE PERISTYLE
Brent Havens, conductor

Queen's music was always built to be larger than life. With full orchestra and amplified band, those songs take on even more weight, with thicker textures, bigger dynamic swings, and the kind of scale that matches their ambition. From driving rock anthems to more reflective moments, this program shows just how much range sits inside that catalog.

BIG BAND TRUMPET WITH WAYNE BERGERON

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7 | 8PM

THE VALENTINE

Wayne Bergeron, trumpet and bandleader

Wayne Bergeron is the kind of trumpet player other trumpet players talk about. His sound cuts cleanly through a full band, with accuracy and control that make even the hardest passages feel effortless. Backed by the Toledo Jazz Orchestra, this program puts that sound front and center in a night built on precision, energy, and the full impact of a big band at full strength.

ARTFUL KEYS: CELEBRATING TATUM

SATURDAY, JANUARY 23 | 8PM

THE VALENTINE

Alain Trudel, bandleader

Theron Brown, pianist

Art Tatum's playing still feels ahead of its time, built on speed, control, and harmonic ideas that continue to challenge pianists today. Ohio native Theron Brown takes on that legacy in a program that highlights both the brilliance and the complexity of Tatum's work. With Alain Trudel leading, the performance connects a global jazz figure back to the city where his sound first took shape.

LADIES OF SONG

SATURDAY, MARCH 6 | 8PM

THE VALENTINE

Joan Ellison, vocalist

Joan Ellison leads a program shaped around the voices that defined the Great American Songbook. From Ella Fitzgerald to Judy Garland and beyond, these songs are built on phrasing, clarity, and connection with the audience. With the Toledo Jazz Orchestra, the focus stays on the voice and the storytelling at the center of each piece.

ARCHITECTS OF SWING

SATURDAY, JUNE 12 | 8PM

THE VALENTINE

The swing era was driven by bandleaders who knew how to shape a sound and make it move. This program turns the spotlight on those creators, from tightly constructed arrangements to the rhythmic feel that defined big band jazz. It is a closer look at the craft behind the music and the structure that makes swing land with impact.
